

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
 Liberia	1 Galcom has had to shut down volunteer production during the pandemic; many of our volunteers are seniors and at the highest risk. Pray we can have these selfless people back to work very soon!	2 Today Radio 4VEH in Haiti celebrates its 70th anniversary! Pray for directors Storly and Kate Michel; this ministry was vital to the Haitian people and its government during the pandemic.	3 Today we want to thank you, our wonderful supporters, who have given sacrificially to Galcom throughout the pandemic period. Because of you, people will experience spiritual nourishment and growth.	4 Galcom volunteer Tom Flack is keeping safe at home during the Galcom production shutdown; he is also caring for his wife Linda. Please pray for his safety and good health; we miss his optimistic outlook here!	5 Nick Chosen, one of Galcom's volunteers, has been caring for both himself and his father during this time of social distancing. Pray that he stays safe as he shelters at home, with little contact from others.	6 Daystar Native Outreach helped in First-Nation territories during the isolation by distributing radios, delivering care packages and providing soup by home delivery. Pray that the Ojibwe people they minister to will be safe.
7 The KFM Radio Network reaches into First Nations' territories on the Manitoulin Island in Ontario. Daystar tunes their Galcom radios to KFM for distribution among Ojibwe elders. Impact Radio airs at 8:30 a.m.	8 Please pray for Radio Voz de Esperança (The Voice of Hope) in Guinea-Bissau. On lockdown during the outbreak, the radio station has been broadcasting church services—a great blessing to the people there!	9 Gerry Kniehl, Galcom volunteer, writes, "I hope the COVID-19 will soon be past and I can come back to do my Friday shift at Galcom." Pray with him that we will be back into full production soon.	10 Rob Kapteyn has been a huge blessing to Galcom as our Board Chairman, and we thank God for his wisdom in guiding the ministry during these challenging times.	11 The shutdown has made some Galcom staff even busier. Pierre-Yves Mutrux has had to set up everyone to work from home, as well as his children's school links—a challenge for his rural internet connection.	12 Galcom is missing its volunteers; it's hard not to see the friendly faces in production like usual! Please pray for Ed and Marg Cantwell today, who are safely sheltering at home.	13  South Sudan
14  Belize	15 Clive Welsh from Lighthouse Radio in Belize asks prayer "for God's mercy, to keep our rusty tower and antenna operating. We are approaching our rainy season." Pray for a blessing on them today.	16 If you've received the prayer calendar by mail, Bonnie Clark is the one who has prepared it for you! May God richly bless her: she has labelled and stuffed this entire mailing all by herself!	17 Warren Lageer is a skilled, efficient volunteer who does the most delicate work of soldering and assembling the radios at Galcom. We are really missing his efforts and pray production will be open again soon!	18 Please lift Jessica Lindsay up in prayer today. She has been busier than ever working from home during the pandemic. She and husband Don had plans to travel in the fall that will probably need to be delayed now.	19 We miss Gerry Desforges and his friendly presence at Galcom on Fridays, when he lends his careful eye to jobs like constructing keypads, which is detail-oriented work. Be safe, Gerry!	20 WJNJ Pure Radio in Jacksonville, Florida airs on both the AM and FM bands; pray for their outreach to their community. Galcom's Impact Radio airs on this station every Saturday morning.
21 Community Bible Church in Granton, ON had to cancel their mission trip to Peru in April with the outbreak, but continue to lift up the people of Peru. Please join them in prayer for the Quechua who live there in the Andes region.	22 Shipping problems caused by the pandemic have made it hard for Dave Casement to send equipment into Tanzania and Cameroon for radio stations. Please pray international shipping will be increasingly functional.	23 Chris Lane devotes two days a week to Galcom; he is integral to the work in production, and is deeply missed. Stay safe until we can open to volunteers soon, Chris!	24 Dave Casement's wife, Kathy, ministers at Verona Free Methodist Church in Verona, ON, and has been stretched to her limit trying to stay in touch with parishioners who do not have internet access. Pray for her perseverance.	25 Iain Sommerville is an integral part of Galcom, not only helping in production, but going on mission trips as well. Please pray for his safety during this time, when we can't enjoy his visits to the office.	26 We are so thankful for the good news of our shipment of ImpaX arriving just before the Ugandan border closed. Pray that the recipients in the Adjumani refugee camp will tune in to hear God's Good News!	27  Uganda
28  Burma	29 Andrea McGuirl, our Accountant, has been spending extra time with her husband and two boys during the pandemic. Pray that they will create further good memories over the summer.	30 Pray for Galcom volunteer Kevin Spong, and also for his mother; she is in a nursing home, and Kevin is very concerned for her safety. We hope that soon we will be able to have our volunteers back with us again!				JUNE 2020

 JULY 2020			1 Cathy Horvath was busy this spring making and delivering goodies to our volunteers during the shutdown to let them know how much we appreciate and miss them! We give thanks for her loving spirit.	2 Shortwave radio is a powerful tool in proclaiming the Gospel message; in March 2020 Krusa FM distributed Galcom radios in rural Cambodia, reaching those in desperate need. Pray for open hearts.	3 David Creel with FEBC writes that with the coronavirus outbreak, FEBC Mongolia is experiencing unprecedented opportunities to share the love of Christ, with live call-in shows broadcast into mainland China.	 Mongolia
5  Peru	6 Donna Sauñe from Runa Simi in Peru wrote to Galcom to again express her appreciation for the push to get so many ImpaX radio-audio Bibles into Peru. It seems God's provision was in place well before the outbreak!	7 Tim Whitehead, Galcom Executive Director, is scheduled to be the Missionary of the Week at Elim Lodge in Lakehurst, ON from July 4th to 11th. Pray that Elim Lodge will be able to proceed with their camp plans.	8 Pray for Bruce and Margaret Davidson, who are greatly missed at Galcom; this couple comes from Oakville to Hamilton most weeks to help out wherever they are needed.	9 Elisha Kyanamina from Solwezi Radio in Zambia reports that social distancing has been difficult in his community because the people don't all wear masks. Pray for a decrease in COVID-19 cases.	10 Michelle Cope has had her challenges organizing the shipping of Galcom orders around the world during the pandemic: the restrictions are different for every country. We thank God for her expertise.	11 Pray for Faith Radio in Tallahassee, Florida; this station truly cares for its community and sent 450 radios to the residents isolated in nursing homes during the pandemic.
12 Pray comfort for the Johnson family today—the birthday of our wonderful volunteer Colleen Johnson, who lost her battle with cancer this past April. She was a blessing to all who knew her.	13 When a radio fails our testing process, it goes to volunteer George Donner, who has become expert at diagnosing and fixing whatever is amiss. He is such an asset to Galcom!	14 Production Supervisor Steve Moore coordinated fulfilling orders remotely from home this spring, where he was isolating with his wife Esther and kids Mabel and Humphrey. Pray for his continued success.	15 On Wednesdays, Renske DeJong will quietly appear at Galcom to help with mailings or production, and does every task with skill and accuracy. Pray for her health and safety today.	16 Dan Hatfield, Director of Nations One for Christ, has plans to install six towers in First Nations territories across Canada this summer. With international travel restricted, pray that Galcom can get involved.	17 Galcom's website recently got a makeover, and it is in large part due to John Clark's efforts as our website designer. He is continuing with chemo treatments; pray for him and his family today.	18  Rwanda
19  Colombia	20 Merry-Lynn Hudson, Galcom volunteer, has successfully battled cancer, but must be incredibly cautious with her diminished immune system during the COVID-19 outbreak. Pray for her continued healing.	21 Working remotely during the shutdown has been a challenge to all of Galcom, including Faye Whatford, Development Coordinator. Pray for her and husband Mitch, and kids Iona, Maeve, Raina, and Moore.	22 Mark Hudson joins his wife on Wednesdays at Galcom, often to test radios for us. A retired teacher, he's always good for thoughtful discussions in the lunch room as well. Pray for this couple today!	23 Tom Blackstone, Galcom USA Director, serves on the Galcom Canada Board. Pray for him and Galcom USA; he had many short-term mission trips scheduled that have had to be cancelled.	24 Pray for Walter and Dorothy Dickson, Galcom volunteers who have come in to help for many years. Walter prepares the wire for our antennas, and Dorothy unwraps and preps the plastic radio-case parts.	25 We rejoice with Alastair and Shelley Wyatt's daughter, Anne, who was married on April 25th in a (necessarily!) small ceremony. Please pray as they begin their lives together as Mr. and Mrs. Tom and Anne Wannop!
26 Jerseyville Baptist Church, ON is the home church of Al & Shelley Wyatt. Please lift up the pastors, Matt and Andrea Richards, in prayer for healing: Andrea is currently undergoing cancer treatments	27 The Galcom property is always kept in picture-perfect shape thanks to Wayne Fair, who takes it on himself to clean up, mow the lawn, and generally fix whatever it needs to look good. We thank God for you, Wayne!	28 James Hutton has been an incredible asset to Galcom as he works on our new Compass player design, all the while continuing with his Bible college degree. Pray for his work and study balance.	29 Bill Gould graces Galcom with his presence to work on antennas, or whatever else we need done. In the summer, he often tours around with a Bluegrass-music group. Pray safety for Bill and Marguerite, his wife	30 Lift up Robbie Frawley, CEO of UCB Ireland, as this ministry uses digital radio and creative means to reach this post-Christian nation with the Gospel.	31 Harvey Greer, retired bus driver, will often be seen enclosed in the Faraday cage at Galcom. But it's to test the receiving strength of the radios, not because he's been naughty—we promise!	 Malawi

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
 <h1>AUGUST 2020</h1>					 Kyrgyzstan	1 Hope Church Toronto West has been making plans for a short-term mission trip to Haiti this year to deliver Galcom radios, but the pandemic may delay it. Pray that God will guide their decision-making.
2  Nigeria	3 Continue to pray for Aujourd'hui L'espoir. The economic downturn due to COVID-19 has hit this Christian-media producer in Quebec particularly hard, even as they provide this vital resource to the province.	4 Herb and Jane Klassen from Brantford, ON visit the Galcom office often to lend a hand with assembling radios and preparing mailings. Pray that God will keep them safe and healthy over the summer.	5 Pray for the future of Galcom's radio-distribution trips. Just as the world is forever changed, the way Alastair and Shelley Wyatt can execute these mission trips will need to be adapted to the new conditions as well.	6 Pray for Hesther Luinstra, another of our faithful volunteers who will often help with mailings or packing the finished radios for shipping. May God bless her today.	7 Give thanks for Thru the Bible and their President Gregg Harris, who has given Galcom access to their teaching library, in more than 120 languages, to share with ministries around the world.	8 Faith FM 93.7 in Kitchener, ON is part of the Sound of Faith network. Please pray for this station's effectiveness in building up His Kingdom. Impact Radio airs today on this station at 5:00 p.m.
9 Hope Bible Church in Oakville, ON has had a team of senior volunteers that gathered monthly to make radios for Galcom. Please pray for the safety and health of this group of caring believers.	10 Reinhard and Isolde Reuter are a recent addition to the Galcom volunteer team, and have proven invaluable for the excellent work they do in production. May God bless them as they bless others.	11 Hans Nunning comes in to Galcom often with his friends Reinhard and Isolde; we are glad to have him there to lend a hand with a myriad of tasks. Pray for his safety and health today.	12 Pray for June Dwyer as she takes over leadership of New Life Prison Ministry in Canada. Audio Bibles are more important than ever to inmates who are placed under isolation.	13 Allan and Florrie McGuirl, Galcom's founders, record a devotional for Impact Radio, airing weekly across Canada and the USA. Please pray that they will be led by God in their preparation and presentation.	14 Pray for Dave and Eleanor Pohl, who show up every week at Galcom to volunteer and are active with other ministries as well. Dave assembles radios, and Eleanor tackles complicated mailing tasks with ease.	15  Kenya
16  Albania	17 Emanuel Radio in Albania fosters a close relationship with their local churches; this year they are focusing on reaching children in remote areas with the Gospel, especially during this past Easter. Pray for their success.	18 Ken Tompkins, our full-time volunteer Audio Technician, is viewed more as part of the staff, and continued to serve Galcom from his home during the shutdown. Ask God for a special blessing on him today.	19 Executive Director Tim Whitehead has had a challenging spring, navigating the work of Galcom in conjunction with the pandemic stoppages. Pray that he will continue to show great wisdom and prudence.	20 Ann Seagrove volunteers at Galcom as our specialist labeller; she can often label 600+ battery doors in an afternoon, and they are put on straight as well. We miss her help!	21 Vice-chair of the Galcom Board, Harald de Jonge is also a commercial farmer; pray for his success as he works as an essential business during the shutdown to supply the public.	22 Today, pray for the challenges we are experiencing with our development of the new Compass player. The shutdown in China and shipping limitations have caused lengthy setbacks to this exciting new product.
23/30 Winona Gospel Church in Stoney Creek, ON has been one of Galcom's longest partnering churches. Pray for the health of the congregation and their continued outreach to the community.	24/31 Pray for Radio Benedicición Divina, run by Teodoro and Wilma Lanasco. This Quechua couple have sincere hearts for the Lord and work tirelessly to broadcast the truth of the Gospel in the Ayacucho region of Peru.	25 It was a tough spring for Raina Whatford: she finished her grade 11 year online during the shutdown. It was a blessing that she was able to keep editing Impact Radio remotely from her home.	26 Jeremy Doorten, Galcom Board member, is also the Director of e3 Partners, a ministry facing challenges as it is based around short-term mission trips, all of which have been cancelled this year. Pray for them.	27 Media 7 in Tirana, Albania had received permission to install the first Christian radio station in Macedonia. Pray for the success of this exciting new venture.	28 Guidelines International, who produces a daily Bible study program in several languages, is partnering with Media 7 of Albania, supplying equipment for a new station in Macedonia. Pray for this partnership.	29  Philippines
