5
Jackie Hughes is a Galcom VAR in Tillsonburg, ON and asks prayer for neighbourhood connections close to the new church building of First Baptist Church Tillsonburg. They have new child and youth programs starting this fall.

6
Cathy Horvath will be glad when we can ramp up to full production again and have our volunteers join us! Pray for her health and for her adult children Steven and Rachel.

7
We welcomed volunteer Rodney Loewen back into Production this summer. He has been eagerly waiting to return; what a blessing it is for us at Galcom to have the amazing, devoted volunteers we do!

8
Pray for Nadia Zeversenuke, the brand-new director of our ministry affiliate New Life Prison Ministry as of August 1st. 1,000 audio Bibles are on their way to NLPM so inmates can hear the life-changing words of the Gospel.

9
Carolina Bartholomew, our social-media guru, is also a busy mom with four sons. Pray for her husband Lennox as well; he will be home-schooling the two youngest, L.J. and Byron, starting this fall.

10
Remember Gourville Bezuidenhout today. He is active in his church and serves as a Galcom Board member. In August he joined us at the Galcom 13th Annual Golf Tournament as well!

11
The 10K Tindi people of Russia live in only 14 villages, and each use different dialects. They are known for their Islamic and secular education; intercede for the ministry obstacle of pride.

12
Dave Casement has been very busy as he works to transfer his expertise and files to Galcom's main office. The work of twenty-one years is a lot of information! Pray for endurance in this task.

13
Colombia Para Cristo is currently focused on reaching into Venezuela, providing desperately-needed Bibles and radios to the people there. Pray for the 1000 ImpaX Galcom sent earlier this year.

14
Bob & Brenda Gaines from Barstow, CA did an absolutely awesome job representing Galcom at the National Religious Broadcasters convention this past June! Their enthusiasm and sense of fun was infectious!

15
"On this day, we commit ourselves to pray and walk humbly before our God on behalf of our native communities, so that God will bring healing to our land." -Bernie Prinzen, Director of Daystar Native Outreach.

16
Pray for Dave & Eleanor Pohl, who are back volunteering in Production—yay! In August, they took a trip to BC to see their granddaughter settle in as she starts her schooling at the University of British Columbia.

17
Long-time Galcom partner Cheyne Presbyterian Church in Stoney Creek, ON is now returning to socially-distanced, live services. Pray for them today and all other churches as we begin to be able to meet in person again.

18
Pray today for the partnership of Galcom and Cal Bombay Ministries. For every ImpaX sent to the South Sudanese refugees in Uganda, they will donate a Garden of Hope; and every Garden distributed will be matched by an ImpaX!

19
Daniel Cavalluzzo worked with Galcom this past summer, processing and digitizing our old files. His perseverance was admirable! Pray for his confidence and endurance as he starts his 2nd year of engineering studies at U of T.

20
Conditions continue to worsen in India, with more COVID cases and a crackdown on evangelical ministries. Pray for health, safety, and the effectiveness of Ahoban radio ministry as they reach out to Bengali speakers.

21
Pray for our friends at Radio 4VEH in Haiti as they navigate the difficult waters of a country on edge with the recent assassination of their president. Pray they will be able to spread peace and reconciliation.

22
Pierre-Yves Mutrux, Galcom Engineer, continues his efforts to finalize his paperwork as a Permanent Resident in Canada. Please pray that he can finish this process and have it settled soon.

23
Tom Blackstone is Galcom USA's Executive Director, and serves as a member of Galcom Canada's Board as well. He brings his extensive experience in missions to offer wise counsel in the leadership of Galcom. Pray for him today.

24
The fall is always a busy time for Michelle Cope as her children and teacher husband head back to school and her life is once again ruled by schedules! Pray for her work and family balance.

25
Allan & Florrie McGuirl spent some time this past summer with a group from Peoples Church Toronto; pray for those they ministered to with evangelism and Bible distribution up in Lindsay, ON and the surrounding area.

26
We are excited to announce a project in partnership with Ethnos Canada (formerly New Tribes Mission), providing ImpaX players loaded with a brand-new translation of the Bible for an indigenous group of 100K in South America.

27
Faye Whatford, Development Coordinator, welcomes the switch in seasons; summer is an extremely busy time for her at Galcom. Pray as she prepares for the upcoming banquet—the next big event on her schedule!

OCTOBER 2021

1

Radio Emanuel in Albania not only reaches into the community with their radio programming, but run a puppet-show ministry for kids. Pray for the 500+ children who have heard the life-giving Gospel this way so far!

2

Lift up Jeremy Doorten, Galcom Board member, in prayer today. As the Canadian Director of e3 Partners, he has had a stressful year guiding this mission-trip ministry through all the COVID restrictions.

3

Listeners in Merrill, Wisconsin can catch the Mission Compass show on WDYD FM on Sundays at 7 PM. They're going to hear interviews with people who serve, both here and around the world.

4

Galcom is so thankful for Don Middleton, who has been on many station-installation trips and also represents the ministry near his home in Delta, BC. He is also a computer and radio hobbyist and never stops learning!

5

A long-time partner of Galcom, Francis Nijoroge, who assisted with the Guinea-Bissau and Tanzania tower installations, has an opportunity to get a new station built in Kenya. Pray for the success of this upcoming project.

6

Mitch Whatford will be switching gears this fall as he changes from coordinating volunteers to work off-site to having them into the office again. Pray that he will help everyone make this transition smoothly.

7

Will we ever get all our volunteers back into Production? Now that COVID restrictions are loosening up, supply-chain issues mean we are still often shut down and waiting for parts. Pray for God to smooth the way for quick deliveries.

8

Mark Fuller and his wife have weathered the shutdowns well, but he is glad to get back in to Galcom to help wherever his expertise is needed. He often uses his expertise to assemble OmniStations.

9

11

We're going to miss our tech whiz James Hutton! He is currently in the process of moving to Utah to take on a pastorate there, along with his wife Charlotte, twin boys, and new baby on the way. Pray for God's leading!

12

Our friends at High Adventure were recently notified that their Usalama Radio Station in Uganda is in conflict with a new radio station on the same frequency. 1000s of Galcom radios are tuned to their signal. Pray for a speedy resolution.

13

Moore Whatford is in grade 11 this year, and has now begun to edit the Mission Compass radio show. Pray for him as he is enrolled in the challenging Baccalaureate program, an international high-school certification.

14

Pray for Ron Huinink, a Galcom Board member who also works in the tech field and brings that expertise to our leadership. We thank God for him!

15

Our Galcom Partner Appreciation Banquet is happening this month, and it will be amazing to gather in person again! Please pray for the safety and enjoyment for all who can make it out to celebrate.

16

There are 16K Darzi people in Bangladesh; their name in Hindi means "tailor". The Darzi were a central focus in their communities, but today they are harder to reach by those preaching the truth of Christ.

17

We celebrate the partnership of churches like Tillsonburg Baptist Church in Ontario, who dedicated their June missions giving to purchasing radios for South Sudan. Pray for their membership today.

18

Pray for Charles Cibene and his team at MegaVoice, who are facing many of the same challenges we are in procuring electronic parts for their Envoy audio Bibles. Costs are going up, but ministry needs are expanding.

19

Chris Lane, Galcom volunteer, is overjoyed to again be part of his Praise & Worship team as his church started meeting outside this summer. Ask God to bless him today.

20

Please pray as Galcom begins to decide on projects and set our budget for 2022. As we recover from the setbacks of COVID, we need clear direction on God's will as we make plans for the next year.

21

Ken Tompkins, Galcom Audio Library Coordinator, continues to adjust to life in Nova Scotia as they make renovations to their house and get involved with their new church. Pray for new friends and good connections!

22

Pray for long-time Galcom friend Joseph Kebbe of Liberia as he adds New Life Radio to his already full portfolio of working with Reach Beyond and the Africa by Radio Network. He is overseeing and training a team in Tanzania.

23

25

Pray for the 2-million Kazakh people who live in China. Many thousands of oppressed Kazakh people fled both Russia and then China in the past century. They are Sunni Muslims, but also put their faith in animism.

26

Jessica Lindsay coordinates all the mailings, thank-you letters, and notices that go out from Galcom, as well as managing our database. Her attention to detail is invaluable! Pray for her continued success.

27

Thank God for the safe arrival of two new planes gifted to Pacific Mission Aviation by Samaritan's Purse. These planes allow for face-to-face visits with people listening to the radio broadcasts.

28

Volunteer Harvey Greer's wife, Carol, has retired after 33 years as an EA for special-needs kids, and they have used their new free time to make extensive renovations in their house. May God bless them today.

29

Continue to lift up Dave Casement in prayer: today is his final day as a Galcom staff member. You have had an amazing career in ministry, Dave! May God richly bless you as you continue to serve Him!

30

Dave Casement will continue to assist his wife Kathy, who is in leadership at Verona Free Methodist Church, Ontario. Pray for this congregation and their involvement there!

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
	1 Tim Whitehead never ceases to amaze as he oversees every department at Galcom with excellence. Pray for his continued strength as he cares for the ministry and his five kids, along with wife Melody.	2 Pray for Greg Muir: he leads a team of national workers in Bolivia to distribute food aid and Galcom radios. Pray also that his father Alex will soon be able to again visit the Quechua with mission teams.	3 Rob Kapteyn, Galcom's Board Chairman, is a light to both this ministry and his community: he works full-time with the Ontario Power Authority. Pray for strength and wisdom to be his in abundance.	4 Pray for Nick Chosen today. He has been a stalwart support to Galcom all through COVID, continually soldering our solar panels at his house whenever we could get the supplies in for him	5 Missions Fest Seattle starts today; pray for Roger and Heather Ewald as they represent Galcom and get the chance to connect in-person with interested visitors!
7 Please lift volunteer Tom Flack up to the throne in prayer on the loss of his dear wife of 50 years, Linda, on July 31. She will also be missed by her home congregation of West Highland Baptist Church in Hamilton, ON.	8 Pray for long-time partners Richard and Kathy McDonald in the troubled DR Congo. They have been broadcasting the Good News through Radio Kahuzi and are eagerly awaiting our new Compass units to distribute.	9 Diane Roberts serves as the Galcom Board Secretary, and uses her extensive experience in ministry to keep excellent records. Ask God to bless her for her dedication and attention to detail!	10 Pray for Brother Vasile and his team at Reaching Mankind for Christ in Nimule, South Sudan as they follow up with families that received one of 3,000 ImpaX players tuned to their station this past summer.	11 Problem circuit boards are transformed under the care of George Donner, our volunteer who trouble-shoots them, detects the faulty components, and is able to fix almost all of them. He is a blessing!	12 The Wyatts are waiting to lead mission trips again and experience all the wonderful and amazing things that happen on them! Pray God will open the doors to travel again soon.	13 The 102K Rtahu Amdo people in China are dedicated Tibetan Buddhists. No Christian believers live among them. Pray that they would seek the freedom that can be found in Christ.
	15 Lynn Baker has the beautiful ability to reach out and connect with our partners on the phone, as she calls to thank them for sharing in our ministry. She is truly a blessing!	16 Pray for Harvesters International, who air Mission Compass in the Maritimes. Their founder, Jeff Lutes, passed away on July 16th. Pray for the Lutes family and this vital mission to Canada's east coast.	17 Remember Günther Eichmann in prayer as he reaches out to Galcom's partners to help with advice on investments and legacy planning. Günther is always mindful of his sensitivity in dealing with this personal subject.	18 It was disappointing for Galcom Canada not to attend NRB 2021 this year, but Tom Blackstone and our wonderful volunteers were able to share Galcom's mission and make contacts. Pray for these new connections.	19 Pray for our friends at SonSet Solutions, a ministry of engineers who are partnering with us on a repeater station in Tanzania and on the design of the AM/SW antenna in our new Compass radio.
21 The Mission Compass radio show is on Three Hills Radio in Alberta at Sundays at 8 PM local time. Tim Whitehead recently interviewed NEFC missionary Gary Quequish, who reaches out to First Nations People.	22 Pray for Daystar Native Outreach as they follow up with elders who received Galcom ImpaX players tuned to KFM radio, with an Ojibway audio Bible. This is a crucial time to bring reconciliation to First Nations peoples.	23 We have lost a beautiful friend with the passing of Lynda McCrory. She volunteered for Galcom for many years, serving in all sorts of capacities. Pray for Jim, her husband, to receive comfort and encouragement from the Holy Spirit.	24 Kevin Horan has been seconded to Galcom by GRN USA, and we are so grateful to have him join us! Pray for him and wife Ruth as he deals with the tangle of paperwork required to get his Permanent Resident status.	25 Louise Claros, Galcom VAR, has moved to Gatineau, QC and asks prayer for good connections with neighbours and opportunities to share the Lord and the work of Galcom.	26 Pray for our social media initiatives, as Galcom aims to share our vision and what we do, in new ways, to people who may never have heard of us before. We need wisdom and discernment.	27 Pray for Scott Beigle and Faith Radio, FL who air the Mission Compass show each Saturday at 1:30 PM and partner with us in Quebec, Kenya, and Uganda. They have a great vision for missions, both locally and around the world!
	29 Kevin Baker has been going full-steam this past year, as he installs radio towers on First Nations territories with Nations One, our partner ministry. Pray for continued good health and energy!	30 Pray for the tiny group of 7600 Hindu Rathawa who live in Pakistan. God's Word and other Gospel resources such as recordings, radio programs, or tracts are not available in the Rathawi language.
