LET'S MAKE IT PERSONAL

Thank you for your partnership with us in the Great Commission. This is our 35th year of sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ through radio. We have sent out over 1.6 million solar-powered, fix-tuned radios and built, repaired, or funded over 200 radio stations in 167 different countries. Millions have heard the Gospel because of your partnership with us.

Personally, this is my 25th year in vocational ministry. What a great way to earn a living: sharing Jesus with others! But several years ago, the Holy Spirit started to convict me that although I was obeying His Great Commission, I was doing a lousy job obeying His Great Commandment. I simply didn't love my neighbour as myself.

It was hard for me to articulate my conviction; but recently, one of our Board members, Anthony Ngai, the Director of the Sound of Faith Radio Network in western Ontario, shared his

In this quarter's newsletter, we are featuring some of our partners who show love as well as preach love. It's the Gospel in word and deed that demonstrates our love and will bring people to Jesus. On the other hand, in 1 John 4, we are warned that if we don't love others, then we don't even know God. Love is the key.

In all my personal wrestling over the issue of obeying the testimony with me. He was an avowed atheist and welcomed debate and confrontation with Christians on his university campus. He felt they didn't really care about him; they just wanted to score points and get another jewel in their crown in Heaven; or, as he says, put another notch on their belt because they "got another one". It wasn't until a professor showed him genuine love that he started to consider putting his faith in Jesus.

Great Commandment, I have done a great deal of study—so much so that it has resulted in a book. Love Personified is a study of the 16 characteristics of love Paul describes in 1 Corinthians 13 through examining the life of some of my favourite Bible heroes and how they live out their love by being patient, kind, humble, etc. I would like to give a copy to you as a thank-you gift for your partnership with Galcom. My prayer is that, as you learn to love others more, it will inspire you to share the Gospel with more people—the Great Commandment working itself out in the Great Commission.

With you in Christ's service,
